Trends and Analysis:

The overall performance of B.COM final year students has been commendable over the past five academic years. The pass percentage has consistently remained above 80%, with a notable peak of 99.50% during the 2020-2021 academic year. The dip in pass percentage during the 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 academic years can be attributed to various factors, including changes in the examination pattern and challenges posed by the global pandemic. The COVID-19 pandemic forced a rapid transition to online learning, which posed challenges for both students and faculty. Despite these challenges, the institution adapted swiftly to ensure uninterrupted learning.

Concluding Remark

The College takes pride in the consistent performance of B.COM final year students. The journey over the past five years has been marked by challenges and successes, all of which have contributed to the growth and development of both the students and the department. We look forward to another year of academic excellence and progress.
